

HB 1453 CAN Record Access

Section 210.150.2 of HB 1453 identifies persons who shall have access to investigation records contained at the central registry.

Current Policy:

- Information may be given to a grand jury, juvenile officer, prosecuting attorney, law enforcement officer involved in the investigation of abuse or neglect or child protective proceedings; and other federal, state and local government entities, or any other agent of such entity, with a need for such information in order to carry out its responsibilities under the law to protect children from abuse or neglect.

New Policy:

- Adds information may be given to same noted above that is involved in child custody proceedings. Pursuant to statute, release of information authorization is not required.