CIRCUMSTANCES (IDENTIFY CHARGES)

8. DSS conducts pre-employment background checks on final candidates as listed below (paid by the agency with the exception of the cost associated with providing a driver's record for applicants with a confidential or out-of-state driver's license). All offers of employment are conditional on background check results. Non-criminal background check results will not be released to you by DSS. Will you accept this condition? Yes No

Non-criminal background checks include but may not be limited to: Employment history and references; professional certifications and educational requirements; child abuse/neglect records; child care facility and foster parent licensing records; Department of Mental Health Employee Disqualification Registry; Department of Health and Senior Services Disqualification List; Family Care Safety Registry; Claims Accounting Restitution System for debts owed to the State for overpayment of public assistance benefits received; and driver's license status. Criminal background checks include: fingerprint checks for open and closed federal and state criminal records and the Sex Offender Registry.

Background check results which may cause the withdrawal of a conditional employment offer, rejection of an applicant, dismissal of an employee or rejection of a volunteer, etc. include but are not limited to those which:

- Display the propensity to harm a client or resident (e.g., if an individual has been involved as a perpetrator in any child or elderly abuse which was substantiated or determined by a preponderance of the evidence, probable cause or reason to suspect and documented by a state agency, regardless of whether proven in court or whether a criminal conviction of any kind or occurred; and if an individual engaged in sexual abuse or harassment of an inmate, detainee, client or resident in a prison, jail, lockup, community confinement facility, juvenile facility, or other institution).
- Demonstrate that an individual is unsuitable for employment or service including criminal acts for which they are under current charge or have been convicted, found guilty, pled guilty or no contest or nolo contendere, or received a suspended imposition of sentence (regardless of whether incarceration actually occurred);
