

Local Community Care Coordination Program (LCCCP) Report

- I. Detailed description of the Health Plan's structure for their LCCCP, oversight, and integration with the Plan by type of program (eg. accountable care organizations (ACOs), patient-centered medical homes (PCMHs), primary care case management (PCCM), or other similar models):

- II. What criteria must participating providers and organizations meet in order to be eligible as an LCCCP by type of program (eg. accountable care organizations (ACOs), patient-centered medical homes (PCMHs), primary care case management (PCCM), or other similar models):

- III. Enrollment Criteria for member enrollment to a health plan's LCCCP by type of program (eg. accountable care organizations (ACOs), patient-centered medical homes (PCMHs), primary care case management (PCCM), or other similar models):

- IV. List of services, including wrap-around and community based services and networks (eg. housing, community health workers, etc.), available to members as part of the health plan's LCCCP and by type of program (eg. accountable care organizations (ACOs), patient-centered medical homes (PCMHs), primary care case management (PCCM), or other similar models):