

Terrence: It Can Change Your Life

Before the SkillUP Program, Terrence had little luck finding a job with the hours and wages he needed to support himself.

His goal was to get his Commercial Driver's License (CDL) and start driving. SkillUP helped him find a school and covered tuition and needed transportation costs. After passing his CDL tests, Terrence was able to find a job right away.

"There are a lot of people [at SkillUP] with information and experience," Terrence says. "They will point you in the right direction. That is advice I'd give people – 'It can change your life!'"
