REQUEST FOR EMPLOYMENT SECURITY INFORMATION - OUTSIDE STATE OF MISSOURI

PURPOSE: To provide the county, region, or state office with information regarding wages reported and/or Unemployment Compensation (UC) from participant’s earnings outside the State of Missouri.

Use this form at application or reinvestigation or when information is received indicating that an individual works or receive unemployment insurance from another state. This inquiry will be appropriate if the participant or an assistance group/household member:

- reports wages or unemployment insurance in another state;
- has a history of employment in another state;
- recently moved to Missouri from another state and there is reason to believe s/he may be employed or receiving unemployment insurance in that state (for example, issues of unexplained management); or
- lives in close proximity to another state and there is reason to believe s/he may be employed or receiving unemployment insurance in that state.

FORM AVAILABILITY: The IM-39 is available as an electronic form only.
